

The Office of the Attorney
General's Special Grand Jury
Investigation into St. Paul's School

The Investigation

- A multi-agency task force was established to conduct this investigation.
- A special grand jury was convened in Merrimack County which was solely focused on the investigation of St. Paul's School.
- The grand jury subpoenaed thousands of pages of documents and heard the testimony of numerous witnesses.
- Investigators also conducted over two dozen witness interviews, executed search warrants, and gathered physical evidence.
- A former St. Paul's School teacher was arrested and convicted for conspiring to lie to the investigative grand jury.

Investigation Conclusion

The Office of the Attorney General informed St. Paul's School of its intent to seek indictments charging the School with child endangerment.
